

heal me, now cause I'm rotting inside reassemble my heart cause it's fallen apart and I feel the time has stopped passing by and the words're still residing in my mouth and I've got no breath to breathe and I've got no strength to believe in anything

revive me now
I feel like I'm dead inside take off the shame which is covering all of me

It's falling down

I feel that my knees are bending I hear the echo is stumbling in my mind I feel like my eyes are getting blind and I've got no strength to say anything
